

Winning Poems in 2021 CFCP, Inc., Annual Contest

2. Short Poem, Third Place

Covid Quarantine

I'm stuck by covid quarantine
Inside my yellow submarine
Companioned by my TV screen
Or reading Wildlife magazine.
Outside my window, hills are green
And blooming orchards fill the scene.
Restrictive rules are Byzantine.
I'll sew a mask on my machine
And try my hand at haute cuisine.
For dinner: oysters Florentine.

Katharine Wilson
San Jose, CA